In 2019, we began a project with Learn24, a network of afterschool and summer opportunities led by the D.C. Office of Out of School Time Grants and Youth Programs (OST Office) that ensures children and youth in the District have access to quality educational and enrichment activities beyond the school day. Fair Chance implemented a custom-designed capacity-building program for seven OST grantees called the Fundamentals of High-Performing Nonprofits Program (FHNP). The FHNP Program builds on Fair Chance’s Pathways Program model, including a community of practice structure paired with individualized coaching. All seven organizations implemented at least one new effective practice during the six month engagement.

Nonprofits Selected: Beta Omega Social Service, Inc., Education Plus 2, Fihankra Akoma Ntuoaso (FAN), Oye Palaver Hut Inc., PIZZAZZ, Sewing Opportunities Never Ending (SONE), Tutoring Café

In 2019, Fair Chance served 31 organizations, reaching nearly 14,000 children, youth, and families across the Washington region. In addition to our legacy Pathways and Praxis Partnership programs, we launched a new collaboration with Learn24 to support organizations that provide vital out-of-school time programming and expanded our Ready For Work initiative to strengthen organizations serving youth transitioning to college and careers. We also released our Racial Equity Framework, which will guide our work as we refine our programming to better meet partner needs and foster racial equity.

Ready for Work Nonprofit Capacity Building Initiative

Fair Chance continued working with Venture Philanthropy Partners (VPP) and the Prince George’s County Council on the Ready for Work Nonprofit Capacity Building Initiative (RfW), a three-year program that aims to create a strong network of high-quality nonprofits that help youth transition to college and careers. "Having my Capacity Building Specialist (CBS) by my side these past two years has enabled me to truly recognize, confirm, and enjoy the impact of First Generation College Bound. My CBS has brought excitement to our organization, supporting me in strengthening its foundation and developing my knowledge for greater impact and sustainability in the work we do for low-income/first-generation students to attend college and graduate with little to no debt.”

- Joseph Fisher, CEO & Founder, First Generation College Bound
